

Bi Pride 2: Bigger, Better, & More Bisexual

Hi Lovers,

It's time for the second annual hump day Bi Pride in San Francisco, on Wednesday June 24th, where we'll be kicking it off with a Bi-BQ at Dolores Park. Bring something to grill and your bi and bi-ally friends – and get extra points for wearing a bi-themed shirt, button or sign.

Next we'll stroll over to the Roxie Theater for the San Francisco LGBT Film Festival's annual Bi Request bisexual short-film program, curated by Amy Andre and co-hosted by BABN. At Bi Request, it's always a packed house and never a dull moment, so get your tickets in advance!

After that, head to the Women's Building for stimulation of an intellectual variety, at San Francisco State University's free Bisexual Film Panel, featuring film directors and bi activists discussing the future of bi film.

Last stop: The Lexington Club, which is generously hosting our after-party again this year! There's never a cover, and champagne and other drinks are on the house, so grab a glass and get to flirty with the sexy bi folks you've been eyeing all night!

All events are open to the public, including bi folks, our allies, and friends. See you soon. Bi bi...

- Alliance for Bi Community Diversions and Entertainments (ABCDE)

Credit: Photo still from Thirteen or So Minutes, one of the many hot bi films you'll see at this year's Bi Request. (Sexy actor guy may or may not be in attendance.)

Wednesday, June 24th

5 pm Bi-BQ. Free. Potluck-y.
Dolores Park picnic tables

6:30 pm Bi Strut*
from Dolores Park to the Roxie

7 – 8:30 pm Bi Request Film Show
Roxie Theater
3117 - 16th Street @ Valencia

9 – 10 Bisexual Film Panel
Women's Building. Free.
3543 – 18th Street @ Valencia

10 pm - ?? Party at the Lex, with champagne and free drinks!
Lexington Club. No cover. 21+
3464 - 19th Street @ Valencia

*kind of like a march, but more like a sashay. ;^)

advance tickets at frameline.org